

ABOUT THE GUILD

The North Carolina Black Repertory Company Theatre Guild, founded in 1981 by the late Larry Leon Hamlin, actively supports the company and all of its activities. Guild members have consistently offered that support with a strong sense of purpose and integrity, demonstrated through:

- Community, national, and international activities
- Membership recruitment
- Performance attendance
- Ticket sales

Membership in the NCBRC Theatre Guild is especially rewarding for those concerned with theatre arts and insuring that Black theatre in particular is well represented in the community.

In addition, as a member of the NCBRC Theatre Guild, you will enjoy warm fellowship, challenging experiences, and the joy of surpassing the goals and objectives of a self-sustaining Black theatre company right here in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. Your time, energy, ideas, and financial support are needed to insure continued success.

Catch the spirit! Select your membership level, complete the attached membership form and mail it along with your check (payable to the North Carolina Black Repertory Co.) or credit card authorization to the NC Black Repertory Co., 610 Coliseum Drive, Winston-Salem, NC 27106.
